High Swartz Attorney to Speak at Montgomery Bar Association
Real Estate Seminar

March 30, 2011, Norristown, PA — Alan W. Flenner, municipal, land use and environmental law attorney with High Swartz LLP in Norristown, will be a featured speaker at the Montgomery Bar Association seminar, "Real Estate Presents: Uniform Construction Code Appeals Board," to be held Thursday, April 14, in the CLE Room at the Montgomery Bar Association.

This CLE program will focus on how UCC appeals boards are formed, who serves on them, what jurisdiction they have, the application process from filing to hearing and determination, and the process of appealing a determination. Mr. Flenner will discuss the municipal perspective and jurisdictional portions of the program.

Mr. Flenner concentrates his practice at High Swartz on matters associated with the built and natural environments including environmental, land use, and municipal law. He advises municipalities on local regulatory issues, including stormwater management, sustainable development, and construction code compliance issues. He is the current Vice-Chair of the Environmental Law Committee of the Montgomery Bar Association and serves as the Secretary/Treasurer of the Pennsylvania Bar Association Municipal Law Section.

High Swartz LLP is a general practice law firm serving clients in the Delaware Valley and throughout Pennsylvania. Established in 1914, High Swartz is the oldest law firm in Montgomery County. For more information, please visit www.highswartz.com.
