High Swartz Partner to Speak at Shade Tree Symposium

January 14, 2010, Norristown, PA — Gilbert P. High, Jr., a Partner at High Swartz LLP, will be a featured speaker at the 2010 Penn-Del Shade Tree Symposium, to be held January 31 - February 2 in Lancaster. The Symposium is sponsored by the Penn-Del Chapter of the International Society of Arboriculture, whose purpose is to foster a greater appreciation for shade trees and to promote the science, technology, and practice of professional arboriculture in the states of Pennsylvania and Delaware. Mr. High will lead a forum on the topic of legal liability issues facing commercial, consulting, municipal and utility arborists.

Mr. High has devoted his career primarily to the practice of Municipal and Real Estate and Land Use Law. He has extensive experience in legislative drafting, subdivision and land development, zoning litigation, public employment issues, local taxation, public contracting, and the law of easements and rights of way. He regularly speaks on issues pertaining to municipal liability, particularly regarding the maintenance of the Urban Forest, a subject on which he has lectured nationally.

High Swartz LLP is a general practice law firm serving clients in the Delaware Valley and throughout Pennsylvania. Established in 1914, High Swartz is the oldest law firm in Montgomery County. For more information, please visit www.highswartz.com.
