High Swartz Attorneys to Address Affordable Housing Issues at Upcoming Seminars

April 25, 2011, Norristown, PA — Dina Schlossberg and William F. Kerr, Jr., attorneys in the Real Estate practice at High Swartz LLP, will be featured speakers at two upcoming affordable housing seminars in Harrisburg.

On May 5, Ms. Schlossberg will be a panelist in the program, "Low Income Housing Tax Credits: Live!" at the 2011 Pennsylvania Finance Housing Agency's Commonwealth Housing Forum, to be held at the Hilton Harrisburg.

The American Bar Association's Forum on Affordable Housing and Community Development Law will take place May 6 at the Hilton Harrisburg. Ms. Schlossberg, who is also a course planner for this conference, will speak on "Year 16: Unwinding the LIHTC Deal," and Mr. Kerr will discuss "Fair Housing Issues in Affordable Multi-Family Housing Developments."

Both programs offer CLE credits. Information and registration details may be found at <http://housingforum.phfa.org/> and http://www.americanbar.org/groups/affordable_housing.html.

With more than 20 years of experience in the area of real estate law, Ms. Schlossberg concentrates her practice primarily on community development and economic development initiatives. She represents for profit and nonprofit developers, institutional lenders and community financial institutions in matters pertaining to affordable housing tax credit transactions, homeownership and moderate income housing initiatives, limited equity cooperatives and land trusts, and more.

A former Associate Practice Professor of Law at the University of Pennsylvania Law School, as well as a former visiting Associate Professor at the Drexel University Earle Mack School of Law, she is a member of the Governing Committee of the American Bar Association's Forum on Affordable Housing and Community Development Law. She is additionally a board member and officer of Regional Housing Legal Services, and a board member of the Philadelphia based nonprofit, the Homeless Assistance Fund, Inc.

She is a graduate of Miami University and earned her law degree in 1985 from the Temple University Beasley School of Law.

Mr. Kerr, with more than 16 years of experience, concentrates his practice on land use and zoning, real estate development, real estate taxation, eminent domain, code compliance, and more. He represents developers, property managers and property owners of residential, multi-family, commercial, industrial and institutional properties. Additionally, he is experienced in real estate tax assessment issues relating to affordable housing properties. He is a graduate of Delaware Valley College and earned his M.S. at Rutgers University. He received his J.D. in 1991 from the Temple University Beasley School of Law.

High Swartz LLP is a general practice law firm serving clients in the Delaware Valley and throughout Pennsylvania. Established in 1914, High Swartz is the oldest law firm in Montgomery County. For more information, please visit www.highswartz.com.
