Thomas D. Rees to Speak at PBI's Employment Law Institute

April 13, 2011, Norristown, PA — Thomas D. Rees, partner and head of the Litigation and Employment Practice group at High Swartz LLP, will be a featured speaker at the Pennsylvania Bar Institute's 17th Annual Employment Law Institute, to be held April 27 - 28 at the Pennsylvania Convention Center in Philadelphia. Mr. Rees will co-present the session, "Breaking Up is Hard to Do: Pitfalls and Practical Advice on Ending the Employment Relationship." The 2011 program marks Mr. Rees's 11th appearance as a speaker at the Institute.

Mr. Rees represents employers in litigations over employment terminations, restrictive covenants, trade secrets, and other employee mobility issues; employment discrimination and sexual harassment matters; employment contract disputes; and defamation and privacy related matters. He also serves employers in a wide variety of non-litigation matters including contract negotiation, preparation of policies and procedures, including social media policies, and hiring and termination.

Named a 2010 Pennsylvania Super Lawyer, and a 2010 Corporate Counsel Magazine Super Lawyer in the concentration of employment law, Mr. Rees frequently writes and lectures on employment law topics. He is a member of the American, Pennsylvania and Montgomery Bar Associations and is a graduate of Stanford University and the University of Pennsylvania Law School.
